MERIDIAN

Meridian provides plenty of activities for its residents. From skiing, hiking, biking, boating, and more the Treasure Valley has been noted as one of the best places to live. Some activities are: Walking the Greenbelt, fishing the South Fork of the Boise River, floating the Boise River, boating at Lucky Peak, hiking Boggles Basin or Table Rock, visiting the Boise Art Museum and Idaho History Museum, shopping at the Village in Meridian, and traveling to nearby cities like the small boating town McCall, to Bruneau State Park's sand dunes and observatory.
